

The BADS Fellowship

The BADS Fellowship is available to be awarded each year. However, the award will only be made when a suitable project is approved by the council of the British Association of Day Surgery. The award is for a maximum of £2,000.

The Fellowship is open to all members of the Association. It may be awarded to aid a research project or to help fund travel costs as part of a study or practice development. In all cases, the project must be aimed at improving day surgery, either within the UK or abroad. A precondition of the Fellowship is that those who receive it will attend the next BADS Annual Scientific Meeting and present the outcomes of their project.

To apply for the Fellowship, a full description of the aims, methods and costs of the proposed project must be submitted and should include ethical committee approval where this is appropriate.

Applications should be sent to: Dr. Sarah Lloyd,
